

Andrew J. Scott III

Mr. Scott is a demonstrated leader in police matters, as evidenced by his many contributions to state, national and international standards setting organizations. Career highlights include:

- Chief of Police, City of Boca Raton, Florida
- Chief Operating Officer, Antol Restoration
- Assistant Police Chief, N. Miami Beach, Florida
- Chair, Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc.
- Team Leader, Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA)
- Member, International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) Forensics Committee
- Member, IACP Crime Prevention Committee
- Chairperson, Multi-Agency Gang Task Force Advisory Board for Palm Beach County
- Chairperson & Committee Member, Municipal Public Safety Communications Consortium
- Co-Chair, National Sheriff's Association Neighborhood Watch Advisory Board
- Chairperson, Palm Beach County Law Enforcement Planning Council
- Chairperson, Together Against Gangs
- Executive Board Member – F.B.I. (Miami Office) Anti-Terrorism Task Force
- President, Palm Beach County Association of Chiefs of Police

Mr. Scott holds a B.A. in Psychology from Florida International University and a Management M.S. from St. Thomas University. He is a graduate of the FBI National Academy in Quantico, VA. A complete CV is available on request.

Litigation Support Services

Mr. Scott is available to assist plaintiff or defense attorneys as a consulting or testifying expert in civil and criminal cases. Services include:

- Case assessments
- Document review
- Oral and written reports
- Drafting of deposition questions
- Opposing expert evaluation

Police Consulting Services

Mr. Scott is an expert in police and corrections accreditation policies. He can assist you with:

- Organizational structuring
- Leadership development
- Accreditation assistance
- Evidence and property protection

Security Services

Protect employees, site visitors and corporate assets with commercial security reviews:

- Security assessments for commercial developers and property owners
- Security force creation and implementation
- Plant security assessments
- Security technology assessment

Call today for a complimentary consultation.

Phone: 561-302-0756
Email: ascott@ajspoliceconsulting.com
www.ajspoliceconsulting.com

AJS CONSULTING, INC.

Police & Law Enforcement Expert

Litigation Support Police Consulting Security Services

750 Elm Tree Lane
Boca Raton, Florida 33486

Phone: 561-302-0756
www.ajspoliceconsulting.com

POLICE POLICIES & PROCEDURES

Andrew J. Scott III managed a force of 320 sworn and civilian members at the Boca Raton, Florida, Police Department. He received special recognition from the FBI for assistance with the nation's first anthrax bio-terrorism attack.

Mr. Scott brings almost 30 years of experience to a wide range of police and public safety topics.

Line of Duty Policies & Procedures

- Crime scene investigations
- Evidence storage and handling
- Suspect interrogation and interviews
- Vehicle pursuits
- Search and seizure
- Racial profiling
- Negligent retention

Use of Force (lethal and less lethal)

- Use of force continuum
- Electro-Muscular Disruption Devices (EMDD) and similar devices (TASER)
- Other less lethal equipment use
- Officer-involved shootings
- Arrest procedures

Public Safety

- Counter terrorism
- Man-made and natural disasters
- Dignitary protection
- Security of land, air and water
- Crime control and prevention

The City of Boca Raton benefited from a 42% reduction in felony crimes over a seven year period (1998-2005) during Mr. Scott's tenure.

POLICE ADMINISTRATION

Mr. Scott maintained responsibility for personnel management, training, internal affairs, computer technology, accreditation, and community relations in his role as Chief of Police. He can address the following administrative matters.

Professional Police Standards

- Police corruption and misconduct
- Fitness for duty evaluations
- Professional standards procedures
- Recruitment and retention practices
- Discipline and termination issues
- Training and written policy review

Police Technology

- Computer aided dispatch (CAD)
- Records management systems
- Wireless transmission of data
- Laptops in patrol cars
- State of the art dispatch center

Media Relations

- Crisis management
- Day to day relations with the media
- Union relations

Under Andrew Scott's leadership as Chief of Police, the Boca Raton Police Department received international accreditation by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies, Inc. (CALEA) three times (1999, 2002, and 2005).

The Boca Raton Police Department was also accredited at the state level by the Commission on Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation, Inc. (CFA) three times (1999, 2002, and 2005).

CONSULTING & ACCREDITATION

Andrew Scott helped develop the State of Florida's accreditation standards. As Boca Raton Chief of Police, he improved the operating efficiency for one of Florida's top 25 cities.

Law enforcement agencies and correctional facilities around the country call on Mr. Scott for assistance with accreditation and management projects, including:

Organizational Structuring

- Geographic districts
- Intelligence sharing and communications
- Accountability techniques based on New York City's COMPSTAT model

Leadership Development

- Private sector leadership practices
- Diversity placements
- Career development initiatives
- Staff training and advancement

Mr. Scott's executive assistance in the accreditation process will benefit your police department and municipality in many ways:

- Strengthen crime prevention
- Formalize management procedures
- Set nondiscriminatory personnel practices
- Improve service delivery
- Enhance interagency cooperation
- Increase citizen and staff satisfaction levels

Mr. Scott's standards-setting experience in all facets of accreditation makes him a subject matter expert in the field.